and Yarns
This work is a collection of knitted yarns of various sizes and colors, all knitted by hand. The work is a tribute to the art of knitting and the many different ways in which yarn can be used.

Safety Blanket is a series of ongoing knitting workshops in which participants are invited to knit collectively from the same piece, creating a multiple-edged shape that grows outwards and becomes a starting point for moments of spontaneous intimacy and connection between strangers.

The result: several collective, magical pieces of art that are as unique as the moment they were created. At the moment there are 6 different Safety Blankets.
